Dear Parents, Governors and Friends

LOST PROPERTY

It is always more of a problem at this time of year as children take off cardigans and jumpers because of the hot weather and then forget to collect them or forget where they have put them. A few simple guidelines help recovery tremendously.

- Items must be named. We have box of unnamed items in lost property in the corridor.
- Names can wear off. Please check on a regular basis and re-name if necessary.
- Regularly check that items belong to your child and haven't got someone else's name in them.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter, it can prove to be an expensive problem if the above guidelines are not followed.
