

THE POCHIN SCHOOL, BARKBY

29th September 2017

Dear Parents, Governors, Children and Friends,

This week seems to have flown past and I can't believe we only have 2 weeks left until half-term. I myself this week have been out and about on various training courses which have been very useful.

This week we have been.....

Harvest Festival was fabulous. The children made me very proud. It was such a special and memorable celebration. Thank you everyone

Things to remember for next week and beyond ....

I look forward to seeing you all at Parents' Evening next week. The teachers will be sharing with you your child's successes.
