

THE POCHIN SCHOOL

Role Of Training & Development Governor

- Help the governing body identify its training needs
- Make governors aware of training courses available, and encouraging them to attend courses
- Book courses for governors
- Make governors aware of other training and development resources (eg GEL courses, EIS documents)
- Help new governors become aware of training opportunities provided by the Governor Development Service (GDS) and others
- Attend termly briefing meetings organised by the GDS for training and development governors
- Provide relevant information to the governing body about training matters
- Monitor courses and training opportunities governors attend and maintain a record of attendance
- Provide an annual report of training undertaken by your governors
- Receive training records from Chairs of governor committees
- Report matters of governor training and development at full governing body meetings
- Encourage governors to feed back on any training attended