

Name:

My Sunflower

If your child would like a home learning challenge for over the next few weeks, here is a sunflower diary. Encourage your child to help you to look after your sunflower and in each of these boxes they could draw or add photos recording how your sunflower is developing and growing. They could even use their mathematical skills to measure the height of it at each stage. We look forward to seeing your sunflowers growth and hearing all about it after the Easter break.

Date:

Date:

Date:

Date:

Date: